

HELPING CHILDREN MANAGE STRONG EMOTIONS & AGGRESSIVE BEHAVIOUR

A TALK & WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS & PARENTS PART 1

THE SPEAKER/FACILITATORS:

Datin Indranee Liew who holds Qualified Teacher Status in UK taught English Language & Literature in England. She first came into contact with special education while teaching in England and later completed training in special education. Currently, Indranee is a UK curriculum consultant to international schools and also advises on behaviour management and integrating children with special needs into mainstream classes. She also conducts training on teaching the Cambridge IGCSE curriculum.

Ms Silvana Bonadei is an experienced special educator who trained in Switzerland. She worked in a residential shelter for teenagers with special needs in Switzerland before teaching in a special needs school in Scotland. After serving 5 years in the International Red Cross in Indonesia, she moved to Penang. Working with the Penang Mental Health Association, Silvine established the 2 Way Centre which offers assessment and intervention with children and adolescents with special needs. The 2 Way Centre has been successfully providing services to residents of Penang, Bukit Mertajam and Kulim. A highlight for 2 Way Centre are the residential holiday camps Silvana organises for children and teens.
